Benjamin proposes with reference to the concept of the medium in Goethe's theory of colors, must in this way increase the signification of the original and its effects, instead of hiding it behind a purely historical view. However, another equally important part of pushing this issue away to the next parliament has to be that the position of the UK in Europe, as well as the populist sentiments which feed this euroscepticism, has always been the Achilles heel of rightwing Britain, the one highly emotional issue that could really split the Tory party. This was so close, so intimate, that it seemed for a terrifying moment to be nearer a relationship than a performance.
